

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW

A gateway to spectacular diving spots and dazzling-white beaches including Bohol's, Cebu merits discovering in its own right – for its landmarks, place in history, and street food and other fantastic cuisine.

GETTING TO AND AROUND

Cebu has the Philippines' second-busiest airport and benefits from direct international flights from major Asian gateways. Flights from Manila to Cebu take 90mins. You're most likely to take taxis around Cebu City, but other means of getting around include the locals' favourite jeepneys, small, kitsch buses that allow you to truly experience the local culture. Cebu Airport to Mactan Beach takes only about 15mins.

The islands of Bantayan, Sumilon and Malapascua are accessible through buses from Cebu City (4-5hrs including ferry transfer). Moalboal and Badian are closer, with a 3hr travel time from the city.

Going to Bohol is quite easy – fast ferries cross the Cebu-Bohol route almost every hour, with a journey time of 2hrs.

WHERE TO STAY

Cebu and Bohol both have a wide array of accommodation, including luxury options perfect for beach retreats – Mactan Island, next to Cebu City, is especially popular, as is Panglao Island, which is linked by a causeway to mainland Bohol. In Cebu City, most accommodations are located in areas such as Lahug, Gorordo Avenue, Escario and Banilad. Crossroads, Ayala, Citi Times Square and Salinas Drive are popular spots for dining and nightlife.

Most scuba divers stay in Mactan, Moalboal and Malapascua in Cebu, and Panglao, Anda and Balicasag Island in Bohol.

WELCOME TO CEBU & BOHOL

Neighbouring island-provinces Cebu and Bohol are the most accessible destinations in the glorious Central Visayas region, with the greatest choice of things to see and do. But they also serve as hopping points to thousands of spectacular smaller islands within their provinces and the rest of the region.

Cebu City – a smaller, more relaxed version of Manila – has the benefit of direct international flights. The Philippines' oldest city and first capital, it's also chock-a-block with 16th-century Spanish colonial relics. Ferries from Cebu City take you to Bohol Island in two hours.

"Panglao Island has miles of dazzling white sand to offer beach-lovers who prefer drinking in their shoreline without chasers of frenetic hawkers and hustlers. Often cited as one of the world's best diving spots, it's also an ideal place to learn your marine matters."

WHY IT'S MORE FUN IN CEBU & BOHOL

Both Cebu and Bohol – and the smaller islands – appeal to those who love adventurous activities, with everything from water sports including diving and canyoneering to skydiving and zip-lining are on the offer. On a more sedate level, there's also the likes of yoga and cycling, wildlife encounters including whale and thresher sharks, dolphins and sea turtles, plus those pristine beaches for when you want to totally kick back and relax.

CULTURE AND FOOD

Despite being a tropical-island paradise, Cebu and Bohol have a rich history – this is where Portuguese explorer Ferdinand Magellan planted the Cross of Christianity in 1521, which paved the way for Spanish colonization. This historical wealth manifests itself everywhere from the colonial architecture and museums of Cebu City to the ancestral homes and centuries-old churches of Bohol.

Cebu is also famous for its sweet mangoes – locals loves to pair them with a steamed rice cake called puto and a cup of locally made hot chocolate called sikwate. But there's plenty of other incredible local fare to be sampled – not least in Cebu City with its fantastic choice of restaurants and street-food stalls. Don't miss local dishes ngohiong (a deep-fried appetizer filled with julienned vegetables), sutukil, which stands for sugba (grill), tula or tuwa (soup) and kilaw (ceviche), lechon de Cebu (stuffed roasted pig) and puso or 'hanging' rice wrapped in coconut leaves.

TOP EVENTS AND FESTIVALS

- Sinulog, January, 3rd Sunday – Cebu's biggest festival, when devotees flock to Cebu City to pay homage to Señor Sto. Niño while revelers enjoy the many activities and the Mardi Gras type grand parade where colourful costumes amidst exciting drum beats are displayed.
- Saulog Festival, 22 April-1 May – celebrates the spirit of Tagbilaran City with a slew of activities such as bazaars, food festivals, cooking contests and cultural shows.
- Kadaugan sa Mactan, 27 April, Lapu-Lapu City – a week-long commemoration of the historic battle of Mactan between the Portuguese explorer Ferdinand Magellan and Mactan chieftain Datu Lapu-Lapu.

- Fiesta Month, May – it's fiesta every day in Bohol. Boholanos come home to Bohol to celebrate local feast days in different localities in the province.
- Sandugo Festival, July – Bohol's spectacular annual festival, with historical shows, sports events, pageants, street-dancing and the re-enactment of the blood compact between Rajah Sikatuna and Spanish explorer Miguel Lopez de Legaspi.
- Iron Man 70.3 Championship, 1st Sunday of August, Cebu – a test of will and strength where only the strong and determined can prevail. See the world's toughest athletes as they battle it out in one of the world's most popular triathlon franchises.
