An aerial photograph of a tropical coastline. The water is a vibrant turquoise color, transitioning to a lighter, sandy hue near the shore. A white sandy beach curves along the edge of the water, bordered by a dense, lush green forest that extends up a rocky cliffside. A small figure of a person is visible on the beach, providing a sense of scale. The sky is a clear, bright blue.

Set in 11 hectares of secluded grounds yet only about 1.5 hours (when traffic is bad) from Cebu City, Plantation Bay offers one of the largest privately-owned waterways in the world, with the clean elegance of colonial-plantation architecture. Decompress from life's pressures in the healing tranquillity of an environment that truly feels "away from it all." If you have ever spent time at a tropical plantation, you know what we mean. If not, come and discover a refreshingly different Flavor of Life. Whether you're traveling for a family vacation or romantic getaway, for business or pleasure, this is far and away your best choice in the Philippines.

Cebu's premier Plantation Bay Resort and Spa now has a total room inventory of 255. Choose from different rooms and suites to fit any travel itinerary, whether it's a romantic honeymoon or fun family getaway.

Mogambo Springs, the spa at Plantation Bay has been internationally recognized by some of the most respected entities in the wellness and spa industry in Asia. Asia Spa magazine, the leading publication in the continent for spa aficionados and industry players, listed Mogambo Springs one of the top 7 spas in the country in March 2010. In 2009, it was cited the Best Spa Experience in the country by the Asia Spa and Wellness Festival Gold Awards. Mogambo Springs was short-listed for the Best Spa Therapist Team of the Year by Asia Spa's Crystal Awards in Hong Kong, November 2008.

Plantation Bay is a symphony in water, with enough water features to keep most families happy for days on end. There are 2.3 hectares of salt water lagoons and four freshwater pools of outstanding design. At the Dive Shop on Galapagos Beach, snorkel, Jet-ski, Hobie cat and Parasail to your heart's content.
